

"Solidarity Tracks"

Organized EOROMED Youth Training Course:
"Youth entrepreneurship:
Potential for Youth and Community".

It took place in summer 2008,
from 17-28 of June,
in Lefkas.

24 participants from 10 EURO-MEDDITERRIAN countries: Greece, France, Poland, Italy, Slovakia, Czech Republic, Tunisia, Algeria, Morocco and Egypt took part in it.

The aim of the EUROMED project was to contribute to the development of European-Mediterranean youth entrepreneurship and generally to creative activity of young people.

Activities of the action:

- ✓ presentation of participating NGOs,
- ✓ presentation of good practices on the topic of entrepreneurship,
- ✓ presentation of Youth in Action program, workshops on stereotypes,
- ✓ the profile of European young entrepreneur,
- ✓ methodology of the project,
- ✓ open space for future projects,
- ✓ visit to the traditional factory of wine and olive oil,
- ✓ Greek lessons,
- ✓ workshops of free discussion and reflexion.

At the beginning there were Presentations of the training, discussing aims and objectives, Introductions of the participants and the organisations.

Participants had their hopes and fears... 😊

Step by step... activity by activity came.. Here are some examples: Presentations of the organizations during an NGO cafe.

Participants made: Stereotypes and prejudices presentation of the entrepreneurship: Game of definition, Examples of good practices from the Euromed space.

They did brainstorming about definition of entrepreneurship profile of young entrepreneurs-project, methodology-how to support young entrepreneurs-the value of the network.

Presentation and debate : 'The value of the network for the Young entrepreneurship'.

The presentation of Youth in Action Programme

Presentation of the ideas and the projects, of newsletter, Final Evaluation.

There was also nonformal part of the seminar: Visiting the wine factory 😊

Young entrepreneurs are sailing!!!

'NAFDAA' (Not A Free Day At All)

They had Greek lesson every day, workshop was for 10 minutes to learn the basics to interact with local people.
